

SOCIETY

(Continued from First Page)

The long court train of tulip fell from the shoulders. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and her veil of blossom, which was arranged in a corner of the room. The flowers were blossoms. Miss Thomas West Elton, formerly Miss Jessie Valentine of Richmond, was dame of honor, and the bridesmaids included Misses Mary L. Owings of Elliott City, Md.; Margaret Mallory, of New York City; Elizabeth Evans, and Anna Maxwell, of Elton.

The bride's dress and bridegroom's were similar costumes of pale green tulle and silver lace with aqua bouquets of silver tulips. They carried American beauty roses. The groomsmen included Henry D. Maxwell, Jr., Charles P. Maxwell of Elton; John S. Elton, Jr., Gray Hartland, A. K. Hartland, and Garrison McRae, all of Elton.

A wedding breakfast was given at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the ceremony at the church, to which 250 guests were invited. The drawing-room was decorated in quantities of fragrant white flowers, trailing vines and palms, and a stringed orchestra played during recessing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey. They will be at home at Monroe Terrace on their return to Richmond. A number of Richmond guests attended the wedding in Elton yesterday.

Visiting Here.

Mr. Walter Davis, formerly Miss Margaret Mitchell of Kentucky, is spending some time in Richmond as the guest of relatives at 1116 Park Avenue. Mrs. Davis has just returned to this country after a stay of several years in England.

Luncheon for Bride-Elect.

Miss Margaret McRae gave a pretty luncheon at her home yesterday in honor of Miss Margaret Crump. The wedding will be celebrated on Tuesday of this week. The table was decorated in pink carnations and a pink flower marked the place of each guest. Covers were laid for six, and the guests included only the bride-to-be and her attendants. Miss Crump, Miss McRae, Miss Sarah Crump, Miss Helen Loraine, Miss Katherine Tattnall, and Miss Mary Brumley.

At the Woman's Club.

The usual lecture at the Woman's Club will be held to-morrow evening at 8:15 o'clock instead of in the afternoon. The lecture, which will be made by Mrs. Hoss, promises to be of the greatest interest and a large audience will be expected to hear her. Mrs. Hoss will address the club on "The American Historical Costume Collection," a subject of which she is ably qualified to speak. Members are privileged to bring men escorts to the lecture Monday evening.

Mrs. Hoss will be the guest of Miss Anna Rose Wallis at 201 West Franklin Street, during her stay in Richmond.

Showers for Miss Crump.

Mrs. Penicket Shiflett gave a linen shower yesterday at her home in honor of Miss Margaret Crump, bride of next week. The parlors were decorated in fall flowers and refreshments were served. Among those invited to share the guest of honor were Misses Sarah Crump, Helen Loraine, Margaret McRae, Margaret Edwards, Marion Spiller, Lona Crump, Louise Crump, Louise Gimes, Louise Shiflett, Louise Elliston and Leila Cottrell. Mesdames Ethel Ellyson, Alice Hall, Frank Louman, Walter Tyler, Seaton, G. S. Harding, J. W. Bowles, W. H. Bowles, W. B. West, H. Cuthbert, T. Timberlake, R. C. Hawkins, Allan Morton, Herbert Taylor, Bernard Hobbs, Joseph Collins, Bernard Loraine and G. T. Crump.

Miss Watkins Honored.

Mrs. Shirley Sutherland, of 1167 Grove Avenue, has issued invitations for a linen shower in honor of Miss Edith P. Watkins, whose marriage to George Cuthbert will take place next Friday. Mrs. Sutherland will entertain at her home on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

At the Art Club.

At the Art Club of Richmond on Tuesday afternoon Bishop Kevin P. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond, and president of the club, will give the opening lecture of the season. Bishop O'Connell's subject will be "The Art of Painting—What It Intends to Do and What It Needs."

The weekly lectures at the Art Club, covering art in all its many phases, constitute one of the most varied and comprehensive feature programs given in Richmond, and members of the club and others interested in the development of art in Richmond are looking forward to Tuesday's address.

Bishop O'Connell is one whom the club delights to honor, and all members and their friends are invited to be chairman of the afternoon.

Baltimore Wedding.

Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore, was the scene of a brilliant wedding Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Anna Wardell, daughter of Mrs. John Freeman Wardell and the late Wallis Wardell, was married to Lieutenant Winfield Spencer, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Spencer of Highland Park, Chicago. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edwin Barnes Nixey.

The ushers were Lieutenant George de Courcelles Chevaller, Lieutenant Kenneth Whiting, Lieutenant Harold Terry Bartlett, Lieutenant George Martin Cook, Lieutenant John Homer Hart and Lieutenant Norman Scott, all of the United States Navy. They wore the full dress uniform of their rank and carried their swords.

The bridegroom's wife was Miss Ethel Spencer, a sister of the bridegroom. Miss Mary Graham of Washington, Miss Letta Gordon, a daughter of Mrs. George Bennett of Washington, Miss Merrion Taliaferro, Miss Mary Kirk and Miss Emily Merriman.

The matron of honor was Mrs. William E. Sturgis of New York, formerly Miss Ellen Yule.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Wardell, was given away in marriage, and was met by the bridegroom's attendants by his best man, his brother, Mr. Winfield Spencer, who is a graduate of Yale University.

Cards have been received in Richmond for the marriage of Miss Leslie H. Hockensmith, daughter of Mrs. Leslie H. Hockensmith and Mr. Leslie Hockensmith, to Captain C. E. Johnson of Richmond. The wedding will take place on Saturday evening, November 25, at 8 o'clock, in the First M. E. Church, St. Paul and Twenty-second Streets, Richmond.

Feature at Westmoreland Club.

The Westmoreland Club has planned an attractive feature for the wives of members, when on Tuesday evening of each week at 8 o'clock, Misses Edna Bradford and Dorothy Harrison will give instruction in the newest designs of the Westmoreland. The meeting will take place on the roof of the Westmoreland, and informal supper will be served during the evening and many of the club members will attend this event each week during the season.

Feature of Interest.

One of the most important events of winter will be the lecture by Mary in the auditorium of the Women's Club the evening of November 21 at 8:15 o'clock. The speaker, who was born in Russia, was so imbued with the new opportunity for self-education that, having finished her education, she devoted herself to it for many years to social service work among the immigrant population of her own race. "They Knock at Our Gates" is the subject of the lecture, which deals with the Jewish immigrant. It is also the name of one of Miss Antin's best-known books. The committee in charge of the lecture includes Mrs. Weston, A. Crosshaw, chairman; Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Parson, Mrs. Josephine Alston, Cabell, and Miss Elsie Williams. William Williams, grandmother of Mrs. Charles J. Williams of "Strawberry Hill." Invitations were mailed to the women at the club and all interested are invited to attend.

Strikes-Bear.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bear announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Rita Syde Bear, to Oscar Strauss, of Baltimore.

of Interest Here.

John C. Elton was host Thursday evening at a dinner given in his bachelor apartments in Portsmouth in honor of his nephew, Walter Hickman, of the "Mementos Musical" Company. The rooms were prettily decorated with ferns and vines, and the table was arranged with chrysanthemums.

Among the guests were Walter Hickman and Misses Shaw and Campbell, of the "Mementos Musical" Company; Misses Nona Fall, Alice White, May

Clark and Mrs. T. B. Clark, of New York; R. J. Clark, of New York; E. C. Fitzgerald, U. S. Na; and Messrs. N. H. and C. C. Johnston, of Portsmouth. Mr. O'Brien is spending the week end with Mr. Hildman in Richmond.

Luncheon for Debutantes.

One of the prettiest affairs of the past week was the luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Herbert Mann at 2:30 o'clock at her home on Park Avenue. Mrs. Mann, Mrs. K. K. and Hamlin, Mrs. Thomas McFate, Mrs. Henry R. Roundtree, Mrs. John McComb, Mrs. Cabell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alston Cabell, and Miss Elsie Williams, granddaughter of Mrs. Charles J. Williams of "Strawberry Hill." Invitations were mailed to the wives of debutantes.

Charity Dances.

An interesting entertainment of this week will be the annual dance given by the Retreat for the Sick at the Richmond Hotel on Friday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The program will consist throughout the evening of several special dances will be given by well-known amateur artists. Favors will be distributed among the guests present, and the decorations will be in palms and fall flowers.

The patrons will be Mrs. James Thomas Cabell, chairman; Mrs. Montgomery Brown and Mrs. Everett Perkins, co-chairs; Miss Pauline Hartman will give several readings, and the Sunday school orchestra will give several selections. All interested are invited to attend.

Annual Social.

St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will hold its annual Thanksgiving social Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Oscar E. Parrish, 2700 East Grace Street. An attractive program has been arranged. Mrs. A. C. Wright, Mrs. Thomas J. Senell and Miss Helen Montague will sing soloists, and Miss Alice Zacher will give several readings. The accompanists will include Misses Howie and Miss Margaret Williams. Mrs. Clarence Y. Benton, State president, and Mrs. George T. King will be the honor guests. Each member is privileged to invite a friend, and refreshments will be served.

Quiet Marriage.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at 2:30 West Main Street, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Elton. Yesterday morning their daughter, Ellie Mandie, was married to Joseph Creed Trice, Rev. S. Roger Tyler, of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Belhaven. The bride was becomingly gowned in blue chiffon brocade, with large picture hat of black velvet. Mr. and Mrs. Trice left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to Washington, Baltimore and Goodland, the former home of the groom.

Approaching Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Johnson, of Mosby Street, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Nedra, to Stewart Ruper. The ceremony will take place on the morning of November 22, in Christ Episcopal church at 8:15 o'clock.

Benefit Card Party.

The women of St. Mary's parish will give a benefit card party at the Catholic Woman's Club on Monday evening from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. The affair for the benefit of the building fund and all interested are invited.

To Give Spelling Bee.

The Ladies Aid Society of Leigh Street Baptist church will hold an old-fashioned "spelling bee" in the lecture room of the church Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock. A short musical program will be rendered also. Mrs. Sophie Montgomery Brown and Mrs. Everett Perkins will sing; Miss Pauline Hartman will give several readings, and the Sunday school orchestra will give several selections. All interested are invited to attend.

Home Wedding.

In the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwin Cannon, 112 North Thirty-fourth Street, a pretty wedding took place Friday evening at 8 o'clock, when the bride, Miss Grace Virginia, became the wife of W. W. Marvin. Charles Cannon, pastor of the church, officiated.

The program included selections from "The Mikado," "Camille," "Hans Hebe," "William Tell" and "Edgar Allan Poe," with lighter vein numbers and pantomimes, the bands showing exceptionally fine talents.

Those taking part were Mrs. E. M. Harris, Mrs. Howard Whitehead, Miss

Helen Sims, Champ Gratz, Ruth Miles, Willie Johns, Gertrude Garrison, Sarah Vitsky, Lucile Eppes, Anna Harris, Gertrude Ebel, Marie Ebel and Messrs. J. S. Walker and W. E. Leeky, Jr.

By special request, Mrs. Thurstons gave her interpretation of "The Raven."

Approaching Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carter have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Elsie Cleveland, to Elmer Vivian Philpots, of this city. The ceremony will take place in the home of the bride's parents, 708 Montrose Avenue, on the evening of November 16, at 7 o'clock. Mr. Philpots and his bride will be at home after December 1, at 708 Montrose Avenue.

Benefit Card Party.

The women of St. Mary's parish will give a benefit card party at the Catholic Woman's Club on Monday evening from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. The affair for the benefit of the building fund and all interested are invited.

To Give Play.

The church Bazaar at Mulberry Corner will be presented by St. Luke's Dramatic Club Friday evening at 8 o'clock in Randolph School, corner Randolph and Chaffin Street. The committee in charge includes Mrs. W. P. Stutz and W. R. Stanbury and the proceeds to go to St. Luke's church. The public is invited.

(Continued on Third Page.)

Order by mail. Margaret Lee will care for your orders. Write to her in care of Kaufmann's.

THE KAUFMANN STORE

Every day some woman learns of our basement bargain—low-priced, but not cheap wearables.

At Fourth and Broad We Offer the Self-Same Modes Seen on the Paris Rue de la Paix

The Kaufmannworthy Autumn SUITS

MADAME WILL FIND it indeed a pleasure to choose her suit from among assortments in which the distinctly different predominates and this applies equally whether her preference is for the plain tailleur simple, or for the model lavish with fur. All are exclusive and distinguished.

In all are incorporated the new style themes and treatments dictated by the latest Paris fashion decisions.

Suits in Rough Fabrics

For Sports and Street

AN INTERESTING COLLECTION of tweeds, homespun, and cloth of burlap in tailored lines that combine the smartness of youth with the conservatism of good taste. Extensive selections, $25 to $55.

Short, medium and longer coats in straight line, belted and tailleur modes, with novel collars and cuffs of skunk, seal or mole. Models developed in velours and broadcloth, in collar checks, stripes and plaids in black, navy blue, brown, green, Burgundy and prune. $35 to $225.

The bridegroom's wife was Miss Ethel Spencer, a sister of the bridegroom. Miss Mary Graham of Washington, Miss Letta Gordon, a daughter of Mrs. George Bennett of Washington, Miss Merrion Taliaferro, Miss Mary Kirk and Miss Emily Merriman.

The matron of honor was Mrs. William E. Sturgis of New York, formerly Miss Ellen Yule.

Cards have been received in Richmond for the marriage of Miss Leslie H. Hockensmith, daughter of Mrs. Leslie H. Hockensmith and Mr. Leslie Hockensmith, to Captain C. E. Johnson of Richmond. The wedding will take place on Saturday evening, November 25, at 8 o'clock, in the First M. E. Church, St. Paul and Twenty-second Streets, Richmond.

Feature at Westmoreland Club.

The Westmoreland Club has planned an attractive feature for the wives of members, when on Tuesday evening of each week at 8 o'clock, Misses Edna Bradford and Dorothy Harrison will give instruction in the newest designs of the Westmoreland. The meeting will take place on the roof of the Westmoreland, and informal supper will be served during the evening and many of the club members will attend this event each week during the season.

Feature of Interest.

One of the most important events of winter will be the lecture by Mary in the auditorium of the Wo-

FOR SERVICE WEAR, for the theater, afternoon calling, the restaurant, receptions, dances, formal and informal affairs.

CHARMING INFORMAL

service, or street dresses in serge, serge combined with satin and Jersey cloth, D'jerette, in modes conservative or extreme, showing touches of gold and silver or colored embroideries — noteworthy are the Russian blouse effects from Chanel, Cossack styles of Cheruit, and Calot's Egyptian motifs. Prices, $15.00 to $40.00.

THE EXQUISITE AFTERNOON DRESSES are noteworthy on account of the extraordinary beauty of the color schemes which have been developed in the lighter tones employing Mervelous Crepe, Chiffon, Georgette, Satins and Crepe de Chine; many of them are with combinations of fur; youthful effects from Lanvin and Jenny reflecting the Greco-Roman as well as the Moyen Age influence; tailored effects for the "Country Club" sojourn, etc., etc., $20.00 to $85.00.

EVENING DRESS, whether for miss or matron or for the debutante on the threshold of her first wonderful season, in our showings reflects the proper Esprit to a nicely.

FOR THE PRE-DEBUTANTE there are dresses dainty and inconspicuous of Gros de Londres, Chiffons, Taffeta, etc., $25.00 to $45.00.

FOR THE OLDER SISTER who is "out" there are Nets, Satins, Silk Brocades, Taffetas and Velvet are offered in most satisfying variety in COSTUMES ELEGANTS FOR THE DOWAGER. Our selections have been made with the aim of meeting the requirements of all tastes and types, $45 to $150.

Nets, Satins, Silk Brocades, Taffetas and Velvet are offered in most satisfying variety in COSTUMES ELEGANTS FOR THE DOWAGER. Our selections have been made with the aim of meeting the requirements of all tastes and types, $45 to $150.

IN PRONOUNCED POPULAR FAVOR are the new coats of Velveteen and almost equally good those of Bradley's London Cloth, Bolivia, Velours, Vienna-Velours, Broadcloth and fancy Chinchilla also are fashionable, featuring the new French wine shades, Chartreuse, Claret, Burgundy, Bordeaux and Pernard.

With these are shown generous trimmings of Beaver, Mole, Seal, Fox, Opossum and Skunk, $35.00 to $97.50.

'WRAPS AND MANTEAUX for the "occasional formal" in Satin, Satin Brocade with Panne Velvet and Panne with Seal and Wolf have been selected with the utmost discrimination. The voluminous and exquisitely graceful draping of these charming creations speaks of the Parisian designer in every fold, $50.00 to $150.00.

SERVICE COATS in great coat types and Godet flare effects; Tweeds, Plaids and mixtures in hard-finished fabrics; somber grays and browns; Jersey cloth coats, in Heather mixtures. MOTOR COATS in brilliant Plaids, Covert and Khaki.

SKATING COATS in novelty stripes, $10.00 to $15.00.